

Dominican Post

Latest Reports and Bulletin updates

June 22,
2024

Issue
#2425-01

Election Report Of

St. Dominic Savio School

The latest updates of Student election held for the year 2024-25

Election Positions:

- * School Captain
- * School Vice Captain

Contesting Candidates for School Captain:

- * Siddiqua of Class 10
- * Ifra Baig of Class 10
- * Mohammed Sufiyan of Class 10
- * Mohammed Zaidan of Class 10

Contesting Candidates for School Vice Captain:

- * Mehek of Class 9
- * Summaiya of Class 9
- * Yusuf of Class 9
- * Sreejesh of Class 9

Free and Fair Election

Headmistress of High school and Primary School oversaw the entire election process, ensuring it was conducted smoothly and fairly. It was a free and fair elections. Mrs. Shashikala and Ms. Kaushalya efficiently managed the polling process. Ms. Qatheja, Ms. Maria, and Ms. Shravani handled the counting of votes with transparency and accuracy.

Dominican Post is private and confidential, to be circulated among the parents and students of St. Dominic Savio School only.

A big turnout on the day of election: A voter with joy casting her vote to elect the School Captains.

Election Activities:

Daily news updates and opinions

Canvassing:

All candidates actively engaged in canvassing to promote their manifestos. Various creative campaigns were organized, including rhyming and mesmerizing speeches, and rallies. Students enthusiastically supported their preferred candidates, adding to the lively atmosphere.

Eligibility:

The eligible voters were the students of Class 4 to Class 10.

Election Outcome:

School Captain: After a closely contested battle, Siddiqua emerged victorious. School Vice Captain: Yusuf won the position comfortably.

Student Engagement:

The students displayed great enthusiasm throughout the election process. They gained valuable insights into the workings of general elections and the various processes involved. St. Dominic Savio school election not only fostered a spirit of healthy competition but also provided an educational experience in democratic practice.

